Laura Brown - 2005 Secretary

Laura started her apprenticeship in November of 2002 as an X11 shipfitter. In 2003, she became an ASSA delegate and served on the Yearbook committee. In 2004, she continued working on the Yearbook while participating in many Apprentice activities. In 2005, Laura was appointed Chair of the newly formed Communications Committee, became ASSA Secretary during the year, and became a Certified Student Leader at the National Conference on Student Leadership in Orlando, Florida. In 2006, she was elected Secretary and served on the Executive Council. Laura was also a member of The Apprentice School chapters of SME and JAYCEES from 2004 through 2006, serving as a charter member of the 2004 JAYCEES. She adds, "I have had the opportunity to meet so many impressive people working with the ASSA that I never would have otherwise." Laura plans to finish her AS in Business Administration from TNCC and the Advanced ASOC program from The Apprentice School in 2006 and graduate from both in 2007.
